(ii) “Special Events” means events and functions which take place on a limited basis, and, in no event, more than three times per year. “Special Events” include, but are not limited to, talent and variety shows, air, sea and balloon shows, pageants, parades, and fashion shows. (b) This license shall be for an initial term commencing _____ and ending December 31 of the same calendar year, and shall continue thereafter for additional terms of one year each unless either party terminates it by giving the other party notice at least 30 days before the end of the initial or any renewal term. If such notice is given, the license shall terminate on December 31 of the year in which notice is given.

2. Limits on License

(a) This license is not assignable or transferable by operation of law or otherwise, except upon the express written consent of the parties, but no assignment shall relieve the parties of their respective obligations as to performances rendered, acts done and obligations incurred prior to the effective date of the assignment.

(b) This license is strictly limited to the LICENSEE and to the premises. This license does not authorize any other performances other than those given at the premises during the course of the Special Event, nor does it authorize performances given by anyone else at the premises or at any other time.

(c) This license does not authorize the broadcasting or telecasting or transmission by wire, Internet, webcasting, on-line service or otherwise, of renditions of musical compositions in ASCAP’s repertory to persons outside of the premises.

(d) This license is limited to non-dramatic performances, and does not authorize any dramatic performances. For purposes of this agreement, a dramatic performance shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (i) performance of a “dramatico-musical work” (as hereinafter defined) in its entirety;

- (iv) performance of a concert version of a “dramatico-musical work” (as hereinafter defined).

The term “dramatico-musical work” as used in this agreement, shall include, but not be limited to, a musical comedy, opera, play with music, revue, or ballet.

LICENSEE shall pay ASCAP a $25 service charge for each unpaid check, draft or other form of instrument submitted by LICENSEE to ASCAP.

4. Reports and Payments

- (c) License fees shall be payable at the time the quarterly report is submitted. The minimum annual fee shall be payable within thirty days of invoicing by ASCAP.
- (d) ASCAP shall have the right, by its authorized representatives, at any time during customary business hours, and upon thirty days written notice, to examine the books and records of account of LICENSEE to such extent as may be necessary to verify any statements of LICENSEE'S Operating Policy rendered pursuant to this Agreement. ASCAP shall consider all data and information coming to its attention as the result of the submission of statements of LICENSEE'S Operating Policy or as the result of any examination of LICENSEE'S books and records hereunder as completely and entirely confidential.

5. Breach or Default

Upon any breach or default by LICENSEE of any term or condition herein contained, ASCAP may terminate this license by giving LICENSEE thirty days notice to cure such breach or default, and in the event that such breach or default has not been cured within said thirty days, this license shall terminate on the expiration of such thirty-day period without further notice from ASCAP. In the event of such termination, ASCAP shall refund to LICENSEE any unearned license fees paid in advance.

6. Additional Termination Provision

ASCAP shall have the right to terminate this license upon thirty days written notice if there is any major interference with, or substantial increase in the cost of ASCAP's operations as the result of any law in the state, territory, dependency, possession or political subdivision in which LICENSEE is located or in which LICENSEE presents Special Events, which is applicable to the licensing of performing rights. In the event of such termination, ASCAP shall refund to LICENSEE any unearned license fees paid in advance.
